About You

You should write your name and qualifying address in the space provided. Please remember to include your daytime contact details in case of any queries.

Which Type of Election?

You need to decide if you wish to have a postal vote:-

- for all elections until you tell us otherwise
- for an election to be held on a specific date
- for a specific time period (you may be away on holiday, at university or college, or otherwise unable to vote in person at a polling station for a specific time period) if this is the case, please put a date on which you would like your postal vote to expire.

Ability to Sign

To be eligible for a standard postal vote you need to be able to sign your name in a consistent and distinctive way. If you have a disability that prevents you from doing this, please indicate this in the section provided.

Away Address

If you are away from home, you can choose to have your ballot paper sent to an address other than the one pre printed on the form.

Date of Birth and Signature

You must enter your date of birth in the format DD/MM/YYYY and then sign the form. Please note that your date of birth and signature MUST be kept within the borders provided. Failure to do so will mean that this application will not be valid.
