

Register For E- MAIL Communication and Self Serve

The Revenues Department at Bromsgrove District Council is continually looking for new initiatives to become more efficient and looking at ways of increasing access to our services.

By summer 2009- 2010 the facility to receive your council tax bills electronically by email and the opportunity to self serve to view your council tax account on line (password protected) will be available.

If you are interested in either of these services please complete and sign the form below and return to Bromsgrove District Council, PO Box 7760, Council House, Bromsgrove, B60 1BR or if you have scanning facilities email it back by scanning the signed form to ebilling@bromsgrove.gov.uk Your details will be updated on your council tax account and used to contact you when the services are installed.
