BDD1 The proposed area of green belt land, released for Redditch housing was not shown on the Bromsgrove District Plan!

Copied to
XB069/1

Hopwoods speculative application for 22 houses on green belt land.

BDD44 The development of new buildings in the Green belt, is considered to be inappropriate except in the following circumstances.

Examples are stated, including extensions to existing residential houses up to a maximum of 40% increase of the original dwelling or increase up to a maximum of 140m². Bromsgrove Council have passed plans greater than the above.

The development of Green Belt land for Redditch housing and Hopwoods application for 22 houses, be refused as inappropriate and does not include a policy where it should. specifically the NPPF
